

Auditor's office, December 22d, 1820. Dear Sir Agreeably to your request, I have prepared a list of the officers of Virginia, shewing their salaries as now fixed by law, and as they stood in 1814 ... James E. Health, Auditor. [To] Thomas Miller Esq. Civil list of Virginia ... [Richmond, 1820].

AUDITOR'S OFFICE, December 22d, 1820.

DEAR SIR,

Agreeably to your request, I have prepared a List of the Officers of Virginia, shewing their Salaries as now fixed by law, and as they stood in 1804. In addition to the salary of the keeper of the Penitentiary, he receives as purchasing agent a commission on the sum which he disburses, which amounted during the last fiscal year, to $1093 59. The docket fees of the Attorney General are neither paid into, nor drawn out of the Treasury, but are received individually by the Auditor in the settlement of each judgment, and accounted for by him. The amount of fees, received by either the former or present Attorney General in any one year, has of course varied according to the number of judgments obtained and settled. Since I came into office, which was about the 3d of January last, I have paid to the present Attorney General, on account of fees, the sum of $266 60, and there is probably in my hands about the sum of $40 or $50 due him. There has been no extra compensation allowed either to him or his predecessor, that I can find, except $100 per annum on account of their services as prosecuting attornies for the superior court of Henrico. The duties of the public Printer are specifically defined by law; any other services which are rendered to the government, are paid for in the same manner as if done by any other printer.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant, JAMES E. HEATH, Auditor.

THOMAS MILLER, Esq.
